

President and Wife to Celebrate Twenty-Eighth Wedding Anniversary

Day Will Be Observed June 24 in White House, With Program Still Uncertain.

THE President and Mrs. Wilson celebrate their twenty-eighth wedding anniversary in the White House on June 24, and while it is not known whether there will really be a program arranged for that day, it is certain to call forth congratulations from all over the country.

Their marriage took place on the evening of June 24, 1885, at Wilmington, N. C., in the home of the Rev. I. S. K. Axon, pastor of the Independent Presbyterian Church, the Rev. J. R. Wilson, father of the President, assisted the grandfather of Mrs. Wilson, officiating. Only a family party witnessed the ceremony.

The President and Mrs. Wilson and Miss Eleanor Wilson constructed service at the Central Presbyterian Church this morning. There will be a dinner given by the President and Mrs. Wilson on Wednesday evening in honor of Dr. Muller, of Brazil, who is here on an official mission.

Last night the President and Mrs. Wilson and members of their household occupied a box at the Columbia.

The marriage of Congressman Robert Lee Henry of Texas, and Mrs. Henry, to Ensign Harold Perry Parnelee, U. S. N., took place last evening in the home of the bride's parents, Nineteenth street, in the presence of a small gathering of relatives and a few intimate friends.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. McMaster, of the First Baptist Church.

Quantities of palms, ferns, smilax, and white roses and peonies adorned the drawing room, after being built of palms and white blossoms with an archway above of smilax studded with white peonies. The halls and dining room were adorned with palms and pink flowers, a large basket of pink roses forming the table decorations.

The bride, who was arranged and given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of ivory white charmeuse trimmed with rose point and duchess lace and pearl embroidery. It was made with a full court train and her long tulle veil was arranged with a coronet of lace held with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss May Armstrong, of West Pittston, Pa., the bride's only attendant, wore a charmingly simple gown of white and pink lace, and carried a small bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

MRS. JOHN E. OSBORNE.

Mrs. Osborne and her baby daughter, Jean Curtis Osborne, will accompany Governor Osborne, Assistant Secretary of State, to the West early in July, and they will either remain there or return to some Eastern resort for the rest of the season.

Little Jean Curtis Osborne has a playmate just now, Thomas Marshall Sutherland, the infant son of the Rev. Dr. A. D. Sutherland, of Berkeley Springs, who is the guest of his namesake, the Vice President, and Mrs. Marshall, at the Shoreham, where Jean Curtis also lives.

Mrs. Adolph van Reuth, Jr., entertained in honor of the eleventh birthday of her daughter, Miss Norma van Reuth, Monday, at her home, "Reuthemore," Takoma Park.

Mrs. Alexander B. Thornton announces the marriage of her daughter, Florence Bernadine, to Dr. Sidney L. Chappell, United States Army, on Wednesday, June 4.

A pretty wedding took place Thursday, June 6, at 5 p. m., at 1235 Evans street, Brookland, the home of Mrs. Falconer Davidson, when her daughter, Miss Edith B. Davidson, was married to Mr. Charles Robert Simpson, late of London, England, son of the late Joseph Simpson, F. R. H. S., of that city.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William F. Davidson, was escorted by him from their house to the lawn where members of the families, the only guests, witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Paul Hickock, an artistic arch constructed of palms forming a background to the scene.

Miss Edith B. Davidson, a tall, slender, traveling suit of navy blue and a hat to match, carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her only attendant was Miss Verdalen Connelly, a cousin of the bride. Accompanying the bridegroom as best man was Thomas D. Davidson, younger brother of the bride. Miss Edith B. Athey, of this city, played the wedding marches.

On account of an unexpected call received by Mr. Simpson to meet in Toronto, Canada, his sister, Mrs. Frederick Atkin, of Alberta, Canada, the event, which had been set for a later date in the summer, was hastened, and this necessitated dispensing with the evening wedding which had been planned for that time.

Soon after the ceremony the couple took the electric train for Baltimore, Md., and at that city took a train at 8 o'clock for Buffalo, N. Y., en route to Toronto. After an extended trip through Canada and the Northern States, Mr. and Mrs. Simpson will make their home in Chazy, Va.

The Day Nursery and Infants' Dispensary Association will give a lawn party tomorrow evening at Thirtieth and Irving streets northwest for the purpose of raising funds to be used to assist needy mothers of babies during the hot months of summer. It has been the annual custom for years for the Day Nursery and Infants' Dispensary Association to secure funds for the work, and each summer from thirty to forty babies are provided for. The committee in charge of the party is composed of Mrs. James M. Spear, Mrs. A. D. McViney, Mrs. Robert D. Lynch, and Mrs. E. Claude Rogers.

The Russian ambassador and Madame Bakmeteff, who are having the members of the staff still in Washington to dine with them tonight, will leave Washington Sunday, June 15, and go to New York, to remain at the Ritz Carlton for a few days. They will leave there on Wednesday, June 18, for Newport, where they will take possession of the O'Grady Bennett place, Stone Villa, which they leased last season, and which will be the embassy through this season.

The Brazilian ambassador and his staff will leave Washington tomorrow evening for Hampton Roads to meet the secretary of finance of Brazil, Dr. Muller, who will arrive there on Tuesday.

Countess de Peretti de la Rocca and her children will leave Washington tomorrow for Boston, where they will visit Miss de Lagarde and Mrs. de Lagarde before going to Deer Park, Md., for the summer.

Senator and Mrs. O'Gorman, accompanied by their daughters, Miss O'Gorman, Miss Alice O'Gorman, and Miss Agnes O'Gorman, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Duffy, and their little son, came to Washington yesterday from New York, and have taken possession of Red Top, Cleveland Park, which they have leased for the season.

Many Entertainments Planned in Honor of Prof. Taft During His Stay.

Senator and Mrs. Newlands gathered about them at luncheon today in their charming suburban home, "The Woodley," Woodley lane, a number of persons of society who helped to make the Taft Administration one of the most brilliant in history, with the former President himself as the center of the group. Senator and Mrs. Newlands gave one of the last brilliant dinner parties which marked the close of the Taft Administration, and to meet the President and Mrs. Taft were many, if not all, of those present at the luncheon today.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tegler entertained at a reception on Friday evening at their home in E street, to celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The rooms were charmingly decorated with palms, white and yellow daisies and peonies, and the table in the dining room with carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Tegler received the congratulations of many friends and had assisting them, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Thompson, the parents of Mrs. Tegler, and their two daughters, Miss Beale Tegler and Miss Mildred Tegler.

Mrs. J. W. Lee presided at the table, and had, among others to assist her, the Misses Grace and Miss Davis.

A wedding of interest took place at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday, June 4, at the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Miss Bertie Jane Hough, of Washington, was married to Owen Leo Trainor, of Baltimore, Md., the Right Rev. Father McGee, officiating.

The bride's gown was of cream white chiffon, made as a street suit, and with it she wore a white hat trimmed with a white egret. Miss Loretta Smith was her only attendant, and Joseph Dowling, of Washington, was best man. A reception at the home of the bride followed the ceremony, and later, Mr. and Mrs. Trainor went to Atlantic City to spend their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Thomas Graves announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Flossie Erminia Graves, to John Saur, of Washington. The marriage took place at Alexandria, Va., last week.

Charles Westmoreland Carr, of Birmingham, Ala., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Kerr Maxwell, of Fifteenth street. Mr. Carr will join his wife here early in July, and they will spend the summer at a Northern resort.

The marriage of Miss Sadie Miller and Mervin Rothchild, son of Mrs. Rebecca Rothchild, formerly of New York, will take place Tuesday, June 17, at 7 o'clock, at Laurel Garden, Madison avenue and 16th street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blum, of 213 Eleventh street southeast, will be at home to their friends Wednesday evening, 7:30 to 10:30, in honor of their son, Millard, who will be confirmed Wednesday morning.

Advertising Manager, Washington Times, City.

Dear Sir:

"The man who does not advertise may know his business, but nobody else does."

In looking over the different advertising mediums of Washington, from every standpoint, one cannot fail but being impressed with the fact that the Sunday afternoon edition of The Washington Times is by far the best.

Your reasonable rates under contract, the wide circulation and the cost per copy are convincing arguments aside from the satisfactory results attained.

Your publication deserves success because you, at all times, study the interests of your advertisers.

Yours very truly,

Justus C. Nelson, Publisher.

Hints to Thrifty Buyers

Why It Pays to Buy Advertised Goods

Because the advertiser has done something to inspire confidence. He has not only explained the value and usefulness of his product, but has put his personality and reputation behind his statements.

He can be trusted because his very business existence is at stake. He believes in his goods to the extent of investing his capital, not only in making the goods right, but in advertising, which will not prove permanently profitable if he fails to make good—secure repeat orders.

The advertising is not only a protection to the trade name, but it is the advertiser's guarantee of quality.

You are justified in being suspicious of unadvertised goods, because, however much confidence the dealer or manufacturer may have in them, he has not enough faith in them to spend money in telling others of their goodness. It always pays to buy advertised goods.
